Dear Mr Majewski

COMPLAINT AGAINST POLICE

Thank you for your email to this office about your complaint against police, the contents of which have been noted.

Some of the points raised, (2,3 and 5) are closely related to matters which are currently under investigation and therefore it would be inappropriate to investigate these matters at this time.

Once the investigation and any subsequent criminal proceedings have concluded, you will receive correspondence about these elements of the complaint so they can be progressed.

Should you object to the decision to suspend the handling of your complaint, you may ask the IOPC to consider whether to direct that the complaint handling continue.

The contact address for the IOPC is: The Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC), PO Box 473, Sale M33 0BW.

Alternatively you can submit your request via the IOPC website: (www.policeconduct.gov.uk).

Points 1 and 4

Point 1 - Bail extension signature
Point 4 - Contact from PC Pratt

These are matters that can be addressed now and based on the information contained within your correspondence, I have determined that these can be dealt with at a local police level. Therefore, papers have been forwarded to your local Inspector, who will allocate an officer to contact you and endeavour to resolve these points in your complaint.

For more information about the complaints process, please see the Independent Office for Police Conduct website (www.policeconduct.gov.uk). If you do not have access to the internet, the IOPC can provide you with leaflets (0300 020 0096).

Yours sincerely
