Dear Mr Majewski

COMPLAINT AGAINST POLICE

I write in response to your recent correspondence with this office about your complaint against police.

The complaints have been formally recorded within the provisions of Part 2 of the Police Reform Act 2002.

My role in dealing with your complaint is to decide how the matter should be dealt with.

Based on the information contained within your correspondence, I have determined that your complaint is suitable to be dealt with at a local police level. Therefore, papers have been forwarded to your local Inspector, who will allocate an officer to contact you and endeavour to resolve your complaint.

If, once your complaint has been dealt with you are not satisfied with the outcome you will have the right to request a review to the IOPC (Independent Office for Police Complaints).

For more information about the complaints process, please see the Independent Office for Police Conduct website (www.policeconduct.gov.uk). If you do not have access to the internet, the IOPC can provide you with leaflets (0300 020 0096).

Yours sincerely

K STARKIE
