Notification of No Further Action (NFA) – Inc. Section 37B(5) PACE 1984

Dear Mr MAJEWSKI,

I refer to the offences for which you were suspected of having committed, namely:

Offence(s):	(1) Assault by beating 24/06/2023 (2) Intentional strangulation 24/06/2023
Police Station:	BOURNEMOUTH CUSTODY (5 MADEIRA ROAD, BOURNEMOUTH, UK BH1 1QQ (BOURNEMOUTH CENTRAL POLICE STATION) (Loc. auth.: BOURNEMOUTH CHRISTCHURCH POOLE, Force: 55, BCU/LPA: C, NPT: CBA, Section/Sector: CB, Beat: CBAA, Ward: E05002115))
Custody or VA No (if applicable):	C23004115

The Crown Prosecution Service has decided that no further action will be taken at this time in respect of the offences. After consideration of the evidence and other information that is currently available the decision was that:

- There is insufficient evidence to provide a realistic prospect of conviction currently, but the case will be kept under review since further evidence may become available in the future, as a result of which a decision to charge may be made.
- Although there is sufficient evidence to provide a realistic prospect of a conviction, a prosecution is not needed in the public interest. You should note that the police may contact you further to inform you that your name will be retained on their records as being responsible for committing the offence(s).

Should further evidence or information become available in relation to this matter(s), the Police reserve the right to review this decision and take appropriate action which may involve re-arresting you for the offence or steps being taken to commence court proceedings.

A decision not to charge may be reconsidered if a review of the decision indicates that it was clearly wrong and should not be allowed to stand. The fact that no further action is being taken at this time does not prevent an aggrieved party pursuing criminal proceedings or civil remedy.

This notice only applies to the offence(s) specified above. If you are currently on bail to return to the police station in respect of these offence(s) it will not be necessary for you to return, it is important to note that any bail conditions imposed in relation to any other offences will still apply.

Yours sincerely,
Detective Sergeant 2350 ALSFORD
(Reviewing Officer)
